

IGNOU
REGIONAL CENTRE CHENNAI

INDUCTION PROGRAMME REPORTS FOR JULY, 2019 SESSION

On 05-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2578, Guru Nanak College, Velacherry combining the learners from LSC – 2528, Innovision Information Systems Pvt. Ltd., T.Nagar, & LSC – 25173, Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Poompozhi.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the Coordinator Mr. Kumaraguru followed by Dr. S. K. Zareena, Assistant Regional Director and Dr. D. M. Bheemarao, Assistant Regional Director.

The induction programme was organized in 2 phases. One for the learners who attended in time. And the other for the learners who came at a later time. During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and to submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee.

And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The officials thoroughly explained about evaluation system. Power point presentation was made and explained about study materials, utilization of IGNOU library and all other student support services. Special light was thrown about evaluation system and IGNOU achievements.

The officials encouraged the learners to participate in the development activities of adopted villages, plantation programme, plastic free environment and Swatch Bharath. The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks.

Dr S K Zareena, ARD addressing the learners attending the Induction Programme at LSC-2578 Guru Nanak College, Velacherry, Chennai on 05-10-2019.

On 05-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 3101, Pondicherry University Community College, Lawspet, Pudhucherry.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mr. Vinayagam, Coordinator of the Study Centre.

During induction programme he explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The Coordinator thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

On 06-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 25160, SSS Jain College for Women, Medley Road, T. Nagar, Chennai combining the learners from LSC – 25227, TANUVAS, Anna Salai, Nandanam & LSC – 25206, Ooviyas School of Fine Arts, Mint.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the Coordinator Mrs. Deepa followed by Dr. S. K. Zareena, Assistant Regional Director.

During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee.

And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The officials thoroughly explained about evaluation system. Power point presentation was made and explained about study materials, utilization of IGNOU library and all other student support services. Special light was thrown about evaluation system and IGNOU achievements.

The officials encouraged the learners to participate in the development activities of adopted villages, plantation programme, plastic free environment and Swatch Bharath. The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The learners participated in Swatch Bharath and cleaned the campus Study Centre Campus. Few learners planted the saplings and Hindi PAKHWADA with the lecture delivered by Mrs. Aruna and Seetha Ramachandran.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks proposed by the Assistant Coordinator.

Dr S K Zareena, ARD addressing the learners of 25160 during Induction Programme

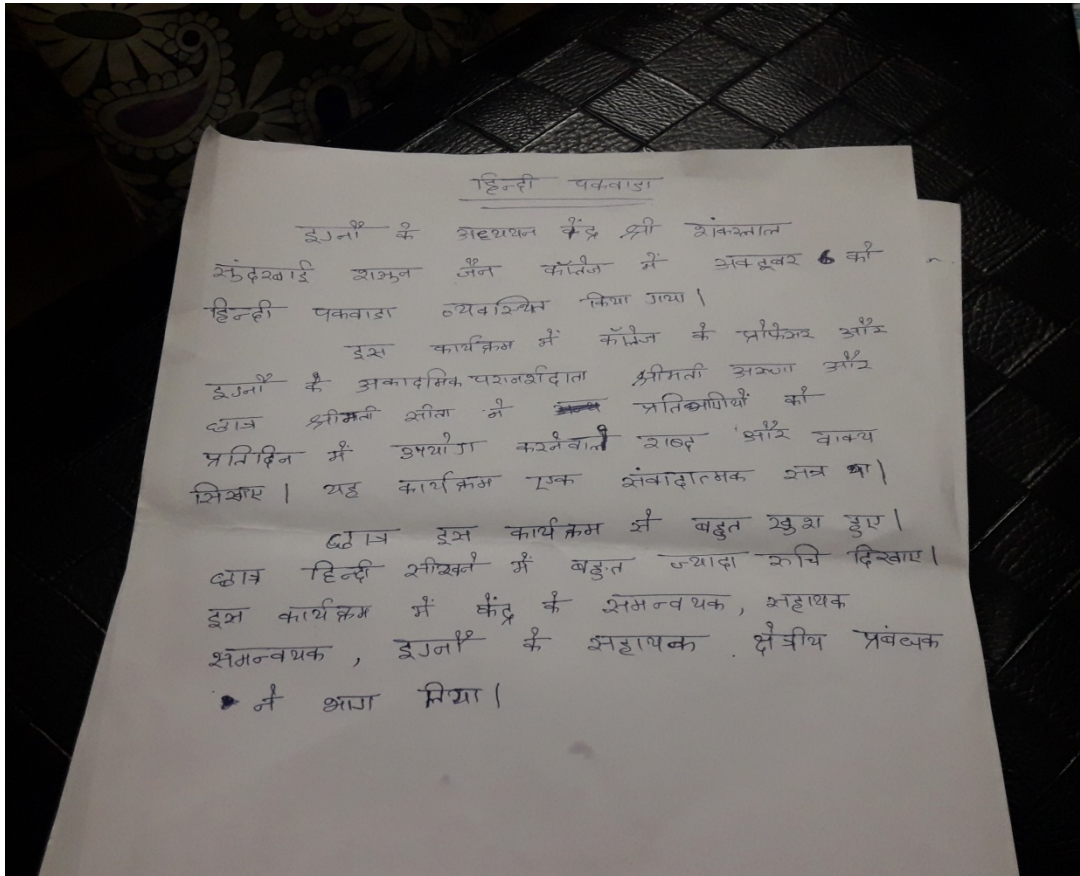

Learners at 25160 SSS Jain College attending Induction Meeting

Learners attending Plant a Tree Programme at LSC-25160, SSS Jain College, Chennai along with Induction Programme

Creating Awareness on Plastic Free Environment at LSC-25160, SSS Jain College, Chennai along with Induction Programme

Conducted Hindi Pakhwada in SSS Jain College along with Induction Programme

On 06-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2501, DDGD Vaishnava College, Arumbakkam, Chennai combining the learners from LSC – 25219, National Agro Foundation & LSC – 25217, De-mazenoid Institute of Philosophy, Gnanalayam.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the Coordinator Dr. Thanigaivel followed by the Regional Director K. Panneerselvam, Dr. S. K. Zareena, Assistant Regional Director & Dr. D. M. Bheemrao, Assistant Regional Director.

During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee.

And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The officials thoroughly explained about evaluation system. Power point presentation was made and explained about study materials, utilization of IGNOU library and all other student support services. Special light was thrown about evaluation system and IGNOU achievements.

The officials encouraged the learners to participate in the development activities of adopted villages, plantation programme, plastic free environment and Swatch Bharath. The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Mr. Manoj Kumar, Assistant Coordinator.

Induction Programme at LSC-2501, DDGD Vaishnav College, Chennai

Dr K Panneerselvam, RD addressing the learners during the Induction Programme held at LSC-2501, DDGD Vaishnava College, Arumbakkam, Chennai on 06-10-2019

Dr K Panneerselvam, RD addressing the learners during the Induction Programme held at LSC-2501, DDGD Vaishnava College, Arumbakkam, Chennai on 06-10-2019

Learners attending Induction Programme at LSC-2501 DDGD Vaishnav College, Chennai

On 09-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 25168, National College of Education, Keelakollai, Cuddalore.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mrs. Asha Roseline, Programme-In-Charge of the Study Centre.

During induction programme he explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The PIC thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

On 11-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2534, Er. Perumal Manimegalai Polytechnic College, Hosur.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mr. Sudhakaran, Coordinator of the Study Centre.

During induction programme he explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The Coordinator thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

Coordinator LSC-2534, Er. Manimekalai Polytechnic addressing the Learners during Induction Programme

Learners attending the Induction Programme at LSC-2534 Er. Manimekalai Polytechnic, Hosur

On 12-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2508, AVC College, Mayiladuthurai.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mr. Mayilvaganan, Coordinator of the Study Centre.

During induction programme he explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The Coordinator thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

On 12-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2566, NKT National College of Education for Women, Chennai combining the learners from LSC – 25179, NKT National College of Education for Women, Chennai.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the Coordinator Dr. Malathi followed by the Regional Director K. Panneerselvam, Dr. D. M. Bheemrao, Assistant Regional Director.

During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee.

And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Kalai Arasi.

Dr K Panneerselvam, RD interacting with the Learners during Induction Programme

Dr D M Bheemrao, ARD addressing learners at LSC-2566P, NKT College, Chennai during Induction Programme

On 12-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2564, KSR College of Technology, Tiruchengode & LSC – 25163, KSR College of Education, Tiruchengode.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mr. P. Aravindan, Coordinator of the Study Centre.

During induction programme he explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The Coordinator thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

Coordinator of LSC-2564 KSR College of Technology, Tiruchengode addressing the learners during Induction Programme

Learners attending Induction Programme at LSC-2564 KSR College of Technology, Tiruchengode

On 13-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2532, Jaya College of Arts & Science, Tiruninravur.

The Induction Programme was addressed by Mr. Vijayakumar, Coordinator of the Study Centre and Dr. D. M. Bheemaroo, Assistant Regional Director.

During induction programme Dr. D. M. Bheemaroo explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The Coordinator thoroughly explained about evaluation system.

On 13-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 2509, Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur combining the learners from LSC – 2544, BICS Infotech, Yelagiri Hills & LSC – 2593, Voorhees College, Vellore.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the Coordinator Dr. Veerappan followed by the Dr. S. K. Zareena, Assistant Regional Director.

During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee.

And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee.

The officials thoroughly explained about evaluation system. Power point presentation was made and explained about study materials, utilization of IGNOU library and all other student support services. Special light was thrown about evaluation system and IGNOU achievements.

The officials encouraged the learners to participate in the development activities of adopted villages, plantation programme, plastic free environment and Swatch Bharath. The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks by Assistant Coordinator.

Prof. Veerappan , Coordinator LSC-2509 and Dr S K Zareena, ARD attending Induction Programme

Learners of LSC-2509 Sacred Heart College, Tirupattur attending Induction Programme

Plant a Tree Programme at LSC-2509 during Induction Programme

Learners of 2509 involved in Swachhta Programme during Induction Programme

Organized Hindi Pakhwada Programme at LSC-2509 during Induction Programme

On 12-10-2019, Induction Programme was organized at LSC – 25219, National Agro Foundation,Taramani.

The Induction Programme commenced with the presidential address of the PIC representative Mr.Saibaba as the PIC Mrs.Kalpana is on leave followed by Dr.S.K.Zareena, Assistant Regional Director ,IGNOU Regional Centre,Chennai

During induction programme IGNOU Regional Centre officials explained about importance of ID Card, Checking the registration Status, going through the website, importance of attending the counselling sessions for theory and practicals, reminding the certificate and semester based programme students to submit the assignments on or before 31-10-2019 and to submit online examination form on or before 20-10-2019 without late fee. And also instructed all other learners to submit the assignments in the month of March and submit online examination form in the month of March without late fee. The officials thoroughly explained about evaluation system. Power point presentation was made and explained about study materials, utilization of IGNOU library and all other student support services. Special light was thrown about evaluation system and IGNOU achievements. The officials encouraged the learners to participate in the development activities of adopted villages, plantation programme, plastic free environment and Swatch Bharath. The induction programme was followed by question answer session in which most of the learners complained about non-receipt of study material.

The programme was concluded with vote of thanks.

Dr S K Zareena, ARD interacting with learners during Induction Programme at LSC-25219 National Agro Foundation, Taramani

Induction Programme at LSC-25219 National Agro Foundation, Taramani